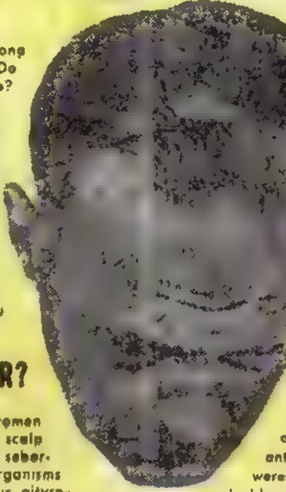
IS YOUR HAIR GROWING OR GOING?



Stand in front of a mirror. Take a long hard look at the top of your head. Do you have as much hair as one year ago? Do you see any new hair growth?

If your answer is no, it is important that you take steps today to save the hair you now have. If you act now, you may be able to reverse the trend on your head. You may be able to grow new hair faster than it is falling out. Doesn't that make sense to you? Wouldn't you like to look in the mirror a year from now and see more hair on your head than you see now? Why lose your hair if you don't have to?

CAN YOU SAVE YOUR HAIR?

Every year thousands of men and women go bald — needlessly — because of a scalp infection. This scalp infection is called seborrhea. Doctors say that three germ organisms cause seborrhea: staphylococcus albus, pityrosporum ovale, and microbacillus. These germs attack the sebacious glands and the hair follicles themselves. If not checked, permament damage is done. The hair follicles atrophy, lose their ability to produce new hairs. The result: premature baldness.

You can easily tell if you are a victim of seborrhea. If you have itchy scalp, dandruff, hair loss, very dry or oily scalp, the chances are that you have seborrhea. Neglect these symptoms and you invite baldness.

Treat your scalp to Ward's Formula. This amazing scalp medicine quickly controls seborrhea and stops the hair loss it causes.

DOUBLE MONEY BACK GUARANTEE

In seconds, Ward's Formula kills the three parasitic germ organisms retarding normal hair growth. This swift germicidal action has been proven in scientific tests by a world-famous testing laboratory (copy of laboratory report sent on request). Ward's removes infectious dandruff, stops scalp itch, brings hair-nourishing blood to the scalp, tends to normalize very dry or oily scalp. In brief Ward's Formula corrects the ugly symptoms of seborrhea, stops the hair loss it causes. Ward's Formula has been tried by more than 550,000 men and women on our famous Double-Your-Money-Back Guarantee. Only 1.9% of these men and women were not helped by Ward's and asked for their double refund. This is truly an amazing performance. Why not join the men and women who have successfully ended their troubles? Treat your scalp with Ward's Formula. Try it at our risk. In only 10 days you must see and feel the marked improvement in your scalp and hair. Your dandruff must be gone. Your scalp itch must stop. Your hair must look thicker, more attractive, and alive. Your excessive hair loss must stop. You must be completely satisfied — in only 10 days — with the improved condition of your scalp and hair, or simply return the unused portion for Double Your Money Back. So why delay? Delay may cost your hair.

H. H. Ward & Co., Inc., 19 West 44 Street, N. Y. 36, N. Y. © 1963

Doctors and hospitals can obtain professional samples of Ward's Formula on written request.

Here's the Proof!

I must admit I didn't have much faith in it, but I hadn't been using Ward's one week before I could see it was helping me. I could feel my hair getting thicker.
E. K., Cleveland, Ohio

Out of all the Hair Experts I went to, I've gotten the most help from one bottle of Ward's Formula.
C. La M., Philadelphia, Pa.

After using Ward's for only 12 days, my hair has stopped falling out.
R. W. C., Cicero, Ill.

I am tickled to death with the results. In just two weeks time no dandruff! W. T. W., Fortuna, Cal.

I am encouraged to say that the infuriating scalp itch which has bothered me for 7 years is now gone.
J. M. K., Columbus, Ohio

Male pattern baldness is the cause of the great majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss, for which neither the Ward treatment nor any other treatment is effective.

H. H. Ward & Co., Inc. Dept. 3908T
19 West 44 Street, New York 36, N. Y.

Rush Ward's Formula to me at once. I must be completely satisfied in only 10 days or you GUARANTEE refund of DOUBLE MY MONEY BACK upon return of bottle and unused portion.

NEWSWORTHY NOTES AND NUTTY NONSENSE FROM YOUR FRIENDLY NEIGHBORHOOD BULLPEN!

We've a lot of exciting announcements for you this month, so let's not waste a second!

ITEM! Marvel super-heroes on TV! Here's the official scoop so far — our first stations will begin showing animated films of five — yep, FIVE — of our Marvel heroes in the middle of September. The characters to be featured will be: Captain America, Iron Man, Thor, Sub-Mariner, and the Hulk — all in full color! What's more, we'll use exactly the same art and stories which have made our mags the sensation of the nation! Production is under way right now, at the famous Grantray-Lawrence Animation Co. in Hollywood, and our Marvel super-heroes will not only be shown throughout the United States, but around the world as well. The list of cities is far too long to print in this space, so we suggest you contact your local TV station and inquire whether or not they'll be carrying the Marvel Comics Super-Hero show. (And if not, tell them you'll never talk to 'em again!)

ITEM! There are so many new Marvel products on sale everywhere, that we can't tell you about them fast enough to keep up with the supply, but we'll try, anyway. One thing we've got to ask you, though — please don't send money to US for these Marvel goodies — they can only be purchased in stores. In fact, even the gang in the bullpen have to go out and buy their own — when merry Marty Goodman unchains them, that is! Anyway, here's a partial list of some of the swingin' things to watch for right now — PAPERBACK BOOKS featuring the F.F., Spidey, Thor, and the Hulk — on sale in July. PHONOGRAPH RECORD ALBUMS packaged with actual Marvel mags — on sale Sept. PLASTIC MODEL HOBBY KITS of Captain America, Hulk, and Spidey, with others to follow — on sale Sept. HATS & HOODS in the style of Spidey, Thor, Cap, and Iron Man — on sale Aug. Spidey and Captain America COSTUMES for Halloween, as well as play suits—on sale Sept. Colorful 3½" BUTTONS of all characters—on sale Aug. MINI-BOOKS now on sale in gumball machines, and panicky PINS on sale in Aug. BUBBLE GUM TRADING CARDS, and TOY RINGS selling like crazy right now! ACTION DOLL ut ing Captain America and Sgt. Fury costumes — on sale June. BOARD GAMES and JIG-SAW PUZZLES! Captain America now — Spidey in Sept. T-SHIRTS and SWEAT SHIRTS galore, late in Aug. FLICKER RINGS; CHARMS and STICKY LABELS — in vending machines only — on sale this summer. And, if all those glamorous goodies don't grab you, we're liable to auction off Irving Forbush himself!

ITEM! We've previously told you about the SGT. FURY and MILLIE THE MODEL (who she?) special king-sized ishes which went on sale last month. So, it's time to clue you in about the next two twenty-five centers which are now available. First, there's the THOR SPECIAL, featuring a brand-new, grand-new action epic in which the indestructible Destroyer returns to challenge the combined might of all of Asgard. You'll see mighty Thor and his fellow Asgardians, such as Volstagg, Balder, Hogun, and Fandral in one of the most sensational battles ever presented between two magazine covers! Plus a pair of book-length reprints of the two Thor sagas most requested during the past year! Next, there's our newest title, MARVEL SUPER HEROES SPECIAL! Not only does it feature the origin of Daredevil, and one of the earliest book-length smash hits of the Original Avengers, but it contains the biggest surprise of the decade! You'll see one of the rarest classics ever unveiled before your startled eyes — a feature-length battle between the ORIGINAL Human Torch and the ORIGINAL Sub-Mariner — as first presented more than twenty years ago! Also, just for kicks, you'll get a charge out of the first short-short story which ol' Stan ever had printed in a comic mag, written when he was seventeen! This one's a real howlin' heirloom!

ITEM! For you cats who can't live another minute without a subscription to a Marvel mag, or wanna send a gift to a friend (or even an enemy — we should worry), here's the scoop — they cost $1.75 for twelve issues (which includes the postage, natch!) — or $2.25 in Canada. Foreign subscriptions are $3.25, and if you live on Mars, contact us for a special rate. Send your check or money order to Subscription Dept., Marvel Comics Group, 625 Madison Ave., NYC 10022. And if you print your name and address nice and clear, nifty Nancy Murphy, our soulful subscription sweetie will recommend you for a two-toned no-prize!

ITEM! For years fans have been asking to see a sample of King Kirby's inking, but Jolly Jack just hasn't had the time to put down his pencil and pick up a brush. However, just for kicks, he both pencilled and inked the fight scene depicting Captain America and Ivan the Terrible on the cover of FANTASY MASTERPIECES #4. So, if you want a real not-soon-to-be-repeated treasure, latch onto a copy pronto!

ITEM! A personal, pleased-as-punch "Thank-you!" from Stan to the Merry Marvel Marching Society, Princeton University Chapter, for the wonderful ovation he received when he addressed the Whig-Cliosophic Society on campus recently. Stan won't soon forget your warmth and enthusiasm, nor the many laughs he enjoyed with the grand and garrulous group at Blair Hall!

ITEM! How about Dandy Denny O'Neil? Our poor, distraught bullpen buddy has been feeling so neglected because his name isn't mentioned often enough in these bulletins (to suit HIM, that is!) that he left the following newspaper item on our desk: WRITER MAKES HOME IN TRASH CAN. Dennis O'Neil, young writer, today moved into an east side garbage can. Mr. O'Neil, 26, told reporters that he doesn't feel he should associate with human company. "After all, I'm not worthy to be in the Bullpen Bulletin," he explained, "so I'm obviously not worthy to live with folks." Denny boy, give up the garbage can and come home to us again! We love ya — honest!

ITEM! Remember we said we'd announce the result of our poll concerning our mentioning of Brand Echh? Well, we're more confused now than ever! All the mail has been checked and tabulated, and it's evenly divided — fifty percent in FAVOR of our roasting our competition every chance we get, and fifty percent OPPOSED to our carrying the batty bickering on any longer! It looks as though there's nothing left to do but play it by ear — we'll mention 'em when we feel so justified — and ignore 'em when we think they deserve it (like most of the time)! So, till we meet next ish, face front — think nice thoughts — and remember those immortal words of Irving Forbush, which somehow seem to have slipped our minds! See ya, Marvelites!

Remember our contest to find the best origin for the swingin' Silver Surfer? Well, we received so many imaginative and clever entries that the only fair thing to do is list as many names as we have room for. Actually, none of the entries is exactly the way we'll one day present Surfey's origin, but our own interpretation is like a combination of all of them! So, we wanna take a minute to thank the following Marvelites for their sterling submissions, and to announce that their non-tarnishing no-prizes will reach them in the usual no-time at all . . .

And now, FACE FRONT! It's time for our confusion clinic once more —

Dear Stan and Jack,

Too long have I stood by and let my fellow fans praise you for your great work! Now, after reading one of your latest issues, F.F. #51, I feel that it is my turn to speak out. I don't know how you guys do it. Seriously, you've got eleven great comic mags out and with each new issue you get better. The art is tremendous and those single-page creations of yours should be hanging in an art gallery. (Like page 14 of F. F. #51.) I rate your comic magazines as the best put out and I feel that you'll stay on top for many a year to come. I've been reading Marvel Comics since I can remember and rate SPIDER-MAN and F.F. my favorites, and all the others follow suit. I only wish I were there to meet you personally and congratulate you guys for your fine work. Presently, I am a member of the U. S. Air Force and I'm stationed in Africa. The one thing that really surprised me was to find your comics here in Libya, but I should have guessed you guys would be everywhere. All I can say is that I've gotten a Hulk of pleasure out of your Suspense-ful and Astonish-ing comics. Oh, there's one Thing that kind of bugs me—who is Irving Forbush?? You've got to tell me! 'Nuff said!

A/3C Greg Spisak, 1950 Comm. Sq. Box 2037
APO, New York, N. Y. 09231

We'll be spot-lighting the lowdown on Honest Irv in a future ish, Greg—so just keep your eyes glued to the bouncin' Bullpen pages! And, while you're waiting, flyboy, try counting our titles again—with our 3 king-size ishes now appearing every two months, we've 13 super-titles out instead of eleven! And, in case you haven't seen the mags in question, we're sending you a hot-off-the-presses copy of MARVEL TALES, COLLECTORS' ITEM CLASSICS, and FANTASY MASTERPIECES. If you re-sell them to your buddies, don't forget our commission! Keep 'em flyin', pal!

Dear Stan and Jack,

This is my first letter to your fantastic mags. I can't thank you enough for giving to me many joyful and thrilling hours of reading. You see, for a German like me it's hard to find the correct words to show my expressions. I'm 28 years old and have been reading comics for many years. I now proudly call a subscription to the F. F. my own. I used to collect other comics before but now these are lying in the corner getting dusty. Since I read Marvel's mighty mags, there are no others for me. The Fantastic Four is my favorite team of your great galaxy of stars. I like the power-fisted Ben Grimm very much. I have an American pen-pal living in Connecticut who kindly ships me your monthly Marvels. So my best wishes to the editor, artists, letterers, colorists and all the others who make it possible that such fine stories and art are available to me and all other comic fans. I'm Germany's greatest Marvelite!

Hans Schaper, Hildesheimerstr. 39
Hanover, West Germany

Good to hear from you, Hans! We appreciate your enthusiasm and your fine taste! We'll convey your good wishes to all the gang, as you requested, but we hope Adorable Artie and Swingin' Sam won't get into the usual hassle as to which letterer you really meant!

Dear Stan and Jack,

I am usually loaded with millions of words, but it is hard for me to sort out the ones needed to tell you how great F.F. #52 was! The Kirby-Sinnott art team seems to surpass itself with each issue, and Joe's inking becomes ever finer in detail and shading. But the main thing that made my heart sing is the latest in your concerted effort to bring comic literature to a more adult level by portraying members of races other than the white. I have a feeling that the Black Panther will turn out to be the first great Negro hero-villain in comic book history! Not only that, but an African king at that! Most of all, I am gratified at the introduction of Wyatt Wingfoot to your pantheon of characters. Being partially of American Indian ancestry myself, I am always happy to see a modern Indian shown as being something besides a poor relic of the past. Wingfoot's pride, his skill, and his dignity are in keeping with the real tradition of the past. Let me cast the earliest vote for keeping Wyatt Wingfoot as a running character in Marvel mags. You could possibly have a strange accident endow him with some super power or actually keep him his normal human self. But let's have more of W. W.! Having run off long enough, I close with a "well done", a "keep up the good work", and a "face you-know-where" to the bullpen gang.

Ken Greene, 1809 20th St. N.W.
Washington, D.C.

Sure, we know where to face, Kenny. Every chance we get, we face out the window to watch the site where the great new General Motors building is being constructed. We've got a ringside seat as our office windows face the entire block. (Madison Avenue, between 58th and 59th St., to be exact.) We have a hunch the multi-million-dollar G.M. building will end up as a real landmark—people will say: "Oh, sure! That's the place across the street from the mighty Marvel bullpen!" All of which has nothing to do with Wyatt Wingfoot, but you know we love ya for having mentioned him!

Dear Stan and Jack,

Some fans may have wondered how the Torch flames on. I have found out through my science class that our bodies carry a special chemical called hemoglobin. This chemical heats our body when exposed to air while we breathe.

TM & © 2005 MARVEL

Johnny's being exposed to cosmic rays has enabled him to put great amounts of this hemoglobin through his pores. With such great amounts of this chemical exposed, it overheats and thus his body catches flame. It does not burn his body because the hemoglobin acts as a coat of gasoline. He registers this chemical by his will to do so. Also, his flame cannot last very long, for the rest of his body needs this hemoglobin for his body's welfare. It shuts off automatically,no matter what. Johnny's other powers, like controlling flame, have been given to him by cosmic rays. In the words of that great professor, Irving Forbush, make mine Marvel!

James D. Pecot, 6014 7th Ave.
Los Angeles, Calif. 90043

The last sentence of your letter is the only one we can really understand, Jimmy boy—but that's good enough for us!

Dear Stan and Jack,

Keep going with those beautiful science-fictiontastic stories in the F. F. — like FANTASTIC FOUR, what else!?! When you start a story like #52 and it's overflowing with those smoothly-complicated and oh-so-shiny Kirbyesque machines, I just know that Stan has got to be building up to another mind-blowing tale of universal proportions. Heroes have to fight in order to be heroes, and those human heroes of constant perseverance, flexibility, concentration, and intuitive wisdom (Ben, Reed, Sue, and Johnny respectively) must be made to cope with the most outrageous menaces conceivable if Man is to be able to transcend his own everyday menaces. If the F. F. loses, then Galactus eats the world. But the heroes did win, and the hungry hellion gave up to us our own territory forever. That's my way of saying, "Here's my vote for more tripped-out cliff-hangers involving everything!" Finally, the Denver people dig Marvel! And anybody that's anybody has your great mags all over his house or person or within easy reach, or at least his friends have! I thought the Silver Surfer was a gassy name, too—maybe you should introduce the Halcyon Hippie!

Philip Normand, 1524 Park Ave.
Denver, Colo. 80218

You must have been reading our minds, Phil! We've got all sorts of nutty names coming up—some of which make Halcyon Hippie seem almost ultra-conservative! And wait'll you meet the rest of the Silver Surfer's family! There's the Blue Surfer, the Green Surfer, the Vermillion Surfer, and the Purple-People-Eating Surfer! We'll never run out of characters as long as we have a color chart handy!

Dear Stan and Jack,

During the while I have been reading your comics faithfully, I have come to understand why some of your fans send you irate letters. You sometimes get so near something really great that it bugs us when you miss by that much! This snipping between Sue and Reed has to stop, and Sue has to do something besides stand around looking scared or loving or angry. What she needs is a good female villain to fight — say some chick who tries to entice Ben or Johnny or even (horrors!) Reed away from the F. F. No need to make her an Empress of Andromeda either—stick to earth-type baddies for a while. They are far more believable and interesting. How about somebody with the powers of Daredevil but the urge to do evil things? I am bothered by this "Johnny-goes-to-college-Frank Merriwell" jazz you started recently. There is far more to college life than showing up the bragging quarterback and winning the game for good old Metro. What's your stand on dope and LSD on college campuses? I know this sounds like a bunch of low blows, but otherwise, you guys have got something of significance going for you. The art is sublime, especially those photo pages. Ben Grimm is an epic character. As a grad student at R. P. I., Reed Richards makes me green with envy — he builds all those gadgets with no NASA grants, has no trouble finding esoteric materials, has no worries about sub-contractors, and they always work. All this, and Sue for a wife and Ben for a friend, too! May your tribe increase.

Sanford Meschkow, Box 40, White III, Room 2
R.P.I., Troy, N. Y. 12181

Thanks, Sandy. Actually, Reed has lots of trouble with sub-contractors, financing, receiving NASA grants, and even dandruff—but we didn't think you literature lovers would be that interested. However, your thoughtful tome has opened up vast new story plot possibilities for us—we can feature a villainous NASA disbursing officer, the mystery of the missing sub-contractor, and the case of the deadly dandruff-remover lotion! One last point—how should we list your name in the credits panel?

Dear Stan and Jack,

How could I ever describe the feeling of pure ecstacy that fills every fiber of my being when I run breathlessly to the drug store where I buy my comic books and see the greatest of greats, namely F. F., SPIDER-MAN, and THOR! Actually, to get down to business, F. F. #52 was really fantastic. The Black Panther is one of your better characters, much superior to run-of-the-mill super-space-villains like Galactus. Having the strongest of your heroes get airsick is something only Marvel could do, and I personally loved it. The thing that really crowned the story was having an ordinary man like Wyatt Wingfoot save everybody. In closing, I would like to say, as many have said before me, make mine Marvel!

Darryl Miller, 5882 Rhode Island
Cincinnati 37, Ohio

We'll be glad to Darr! But, if ol' Galactus was your idea of a run-of-the-mill space-villain, do us a favor, huh? Let us know whom you consider to be an unusual one! We thought (foolishly, perhaps) that a gent who could single-handedly drain all the life energy from a planet—and who was as close to being all-powerful as you can get—without being Odin—and who travelled around with a surf-boarding space herald—was at least slightly out of the ordinary! But, it just goes to show how wrong we can be!

Dear Stan and Jack,

Well, I've done it at last! I have finally written to you. One reason I did not write earlier is because there was nothing to gripe about in your issues. In your flood of letters praising F. F. #52, I thought someone had better speak up for the minority of your readers. To make a long letter shorter, I'll tell you the bare truth. The Black Panther stinks! A lot of your other villains do, but to add another to their ranks is unbearable. The cover of F. F. #52 was magnificent, as was the first half of that issue. Then what happens — the Black Panther bats the F. F. around like dolls! (It was about time someone did, but that is not the point.) Wingfoot was beautiful, as was the entire mag's attitude and art. No one, but no one, had enough fight. The Black Panther is entirely too ridiculous. One more thing — cut the comedy. Your jokes have polluted all your mags with corny nicknames and funnies. This tends to make your life-and death struggles seem unreal. This goes double for your letters pages. This letter may not change your views any, but, nevertheless, I will remain a loyal fan for many years. I have a small group of neighborhood friends who collect Marvel Comics and each shares my views in this letter.

Alan Finn, Rt. #1, Box 309
Lenoir City, Tenn.

Boy! Nothing like finishing off with a nice encouraging letter! So, you don't like our mirthful Marvel humor, eh? Tell you what—we'll never crack another joke! How's that? You've won an unconditional surrender! You've defeated the mighty Marvel Bullpen with one mere letter! Of course, there's one thing we should mention—we've never tried to crack jokes in our mags! We've been laboring under the impression that we're writing serious, soul-satisfying sagas of special social significance! If any of it comes off as being funny, it's just like an extra little surprise bonus! We're not quite sure what we're talking about, Al, but anyhow—don't go away mad!

NEXT ISH: Sorry, frantic ones! F.F. #56 has so many spectacular surprises awaiting you, that we can't even mention them here! We wouldn't wanna spoil the indescribable pleasure you'll receive when you see what happens to Johnny and Wyatt, as they get ever closer to the trapped Inhumans! We've got a special super-duper villain for you to hiss — a staggering sample of Marvel's magnificent action for you to cheer—and the most colorful characters in all comicdom cavortin' before your very eyes! So, be sure to get with FANTASTIC FOUR #56—we wouldn't want some Brand Echh turncoat to beat you to it!
